CALIFORNIA BOYS WARNED WATCH FORWARD PASS

BERKELEY, Cal., Dec. 23.—University of California football players have been warned to "watch forward" and look for a last minute aerial attack to a touchdown against the Ohio State university at Pasadena, California, New Year's day.

Ohio State won the Western conference title by defeating the University of Illinois with a touchdown from a forward pass which started when the game had but 10 seconds to go. The final whistle blew even before the play was completed.

Other games of the 1920 season were won by Ohio State during the last minutes of play. Against Wisconsin in the last four minutes Ohio ran over two touchdowns. And the Buckeyes pulled the Chicago game out of the fire the same way, it is said.

"Hoge" Workman, Ohio halfback, who does most of the team's forward passing, has been described by Walter Camp, noted football authority, as a "wonder" at passing. Generally Pete Stinchcomb left half, takes the passes. Stinchcomb is considered one of the best open ball runners in the game, and this year was selected on Camp's All-American first team.

TO AUCTION DRESS MRS. NAPOLEON SOON

PARIS, Dec. 2.—By Mail.—The beautiful dress worn by Empress Eugenie, second wife of Napoleon III, on the day of her coronation as empress of the French, will be sold at auction shortly.

The dress is made of exquisite lace, made by the French lace workers of Calvados, to whom Napoleon himself sent the design.

It was stolen from the Tuilleries during the riots of the revolution of 1848 and found its way to the Galliera museum. The empress was the daughter of Emperor Francis I of Austria-Hungary.
